Unforgettable, in every way...

Meeting Kay and Jan, and hearing Peter was unforgettable, in every way... I can truly say that this first meeting – which I was “summoned” to attend – turned the wheel of destiny for me. Indeed, it is in my first Peter’s session that I met Michael, my “emPowering NOW” partner.

When in the presence of Kay/Peter, there is an unmistakable sense of the sacred, a letting go that allows me to relax and just be. I feel it in the open heart and the generosity that moves Kay to give it all. I feel it in the childlike delight that can only be the mark of a master. There is an aura of grace around her, as if she is at home with what life has brought. Besides the clear multimodality of the voice and words that emanate from Peter, each meeting humbles me by the quality of profound acceptance of life’s wonders.

In the spirit of eternal friendship and in deep respect,

Mahalene Louis
